

world as divided or as in the throes of a “clash of civilizations”.

In this light, and given the longstanding friendship and close ties be-

I am looking very much forward to our meeting during the Forum for

