

FOLKETINGET

Det Udenrigspolitiske Nævn og Europaudvalget

Til: Nævnets og udvalgets medlemmer og stedfortrædere
Dato: 16. november 2022

Invitation til møde med tre oppositionspolitikere

Sekretariatet har modtaget en henvendelse fra formanden for Det Udenrigspolitiske Selskab, der på vegne af tre repræsentanter fra den russiske opposition videreformidler deres ønske om, at mødes med Det Udenrigspolitiske Nævn og Europaudvalget. De tre russiske oppositionspolitikere besøger København i anledningen af CPH Conference on Western-Russian Relations 2.0. Vi har derfor arrangeret et fællesmøde.

Fællesmødet afholdes:

Fredag den 25. november 2022 kl. 14.00 – 15.00 i værelse 2-133

Emnerne for mødet vil være drøftelse af de seneste udviklinger i Rusland, herunder undertrykkelse af kritiske stemmer og krigens indflydelse på Putins styre, samt Vestens relation til Rusland på civilsamfundsniveau. Det kan ikke udelukkes, at de også ønsker at drøfte Europas visa-politik overfor russere.

De tre russiske oppositionspolitikere er følgende:

- Liubov Sobol, centralt medlem af Team Navalny og tidligere medlem af Russian Opposition Coordination Council.
- Maria Logan, medlem af Open Russia Foundation og administrator for Future of Russia Foundation og Khodorkovsky Foundation.
- Daria Wagner, formand for den danske NGO 'Danish Friends of a Democratic Russia.

CV'er på politikerne:

Maria Logan

Maria Logan is part of the Open Russia Foundation and Trustee to the Future of Russia Foundation and the Khodorkovsky Foundation. She is a native of St.

Petersburg, an international lawyer and human rights campaigner. Logan has previously worked as part of the litigation practice group at the international law firm Greenberg Traurig in Washington, DC. In 2008, she joined the worldwide campaign for Mikhail Khodorkovsky's release. She coordinated international human rights organizations in support of Mr Khodorkovsky and represented his case before governmental institutions worldwide. Since Mr Khodorkovsky's release from prison, Logan has spearheaded several of his new initiatives designed to support civil society and defend human rights in Russia.

Liubov Sobol

Lyubov Sobol is a Russian political and public figure. She consistently advocates the democratization of Russia and opposes Putin's policies. The key member of Alexei Navalny's team. She produces the YouTube-channel "Navalny Live" of Alexei Navalny (more than 3 million subscribers, more than 250 million views per 6 months). She participated in the election campaign for the Moscow City Duma in 2019 and the State Duma of Russia in 2021 but was illegally admitted because of her political position: opposing the actions of the current government. Sobol was a lawyer for the Anti-Corruption Foundation until its closure in 2021 and a former member of Russian Opposition Coordination Council. She was included in the Leadership category by the BBC on its 2019 list of 100 inspiring and influential women from around the world.

Daria Wagner

Daria Wagner is the chair of the Danish NGO 'Danish Friends of a Democratic Russia'. Daria supports Alexey Navalny and his team, she is an owner of a Facebook-group "Copenhagen for Navalny/Denmark for Navalny". She holds a Master of Science in Chemical Engineering and a PhD in Microelectronics. Mother of 5 children.
